FOLD

Sexual exploitation refers to the commercialisation of individuals for sexual activities.

If an adult consents to participate in prostitution it is exploitative if the individual is held in service through force, fraud, deception, physical or psychological manipulation.

- Globally, sexual exploitation accounts for more than 4.8 million cases of modern -day slavery, and 19% of all types of exploitation.
- 99% of victims of sex trafficking are female, and 20% minors (male and female).
