SEX TRAFFICKING OF A MINOR

Sex trafficking of a minor happens when someone under 18 is advertised for, solicited for, or exploited through a commercial sex act, even if they appear to consent. A commercial sex act occurs when the sex act is in exchange for anything of value, such as food, shelter, drugs, etc., and is not limited to the exchange of money.

INDICATORS

- ▶ Apparent minor involved in commercial sex
- ▶ Under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- ▶ Tattoos or brands indicating "ownership"
- ▶ Overly controlling "boyfriend" or older female
- ▶ Facial/body language display anxiety
- ▶ Child is preoccupied with "getting money"
- ▶ Child lies about age or identity
- ▶ Dresses inconsistent with true age
